CHICAGO LIVESTOCK MARKET REPORT

CHICAGO (A)-Barrows and gilts declined 25 to 50 cents in the hog market this week while sows were steady to 25 cents higher.

Most hogs sold at the lowest level Average cost of barrows and gilts on Thursday was $17.13, lowest average cost since December 1952. Receipts totaled 74,000 head compared with only 47,000 a year ago.

Feature of the week in the cattle section was a good demand for prime offerings. Two loads of prime 1,115 pound steers topped at $32.00, which was equal to the high since April and only 50 cents under the year's peak. One load of prime 980 pound heifers reached $28.00, equal to the highest price paid for straight heifers in load lots this year. Slaughter lambs ended the week steady to 50 cents higher while slaughter sheep were steady. Receipts were as large as any week since January. Dressed lambs closed steady to $1.00 higher in the Chicago wholesale market while prices gained $1.00 to $3.00 in the
